MEETINGS OF THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

HARARE, ZIMBABWE

11 and 12 December 1998

OPENING ACTIONS - 11 December 1998

I. Call to Order

The Central Committee was elected during the Eighth Assembly of the World Council of Churches in Harare, Zimbabwe, on 10 December 1998. It was convened in closed session by the General Secretary, Dr Konrad Raiser, on 11 December at 16.30 hrs in order to elect a Nominations Committee.

II. Roll Call

In view of the brief time available for this meeting, the full roll call was not taken.

APPOINTMENT OF NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE

The General Secretary explained that the task of the Nominations Committee was to propose nominations for a Moderator and two Vice-Moderators of the new Central Committee, and for the members of the Executive Committee.

Several changes were proposed to the slate of names submitted by the General Secretary, and these were accepted by acclamation. Two members later withdrew from the Committee in order to be able to stand as candidates for the Executive Committee.

The membership of the Nominations Committee as confirmed by the Central Committee, was as follows:

This meeting of the Central Committee was closed at 17.30 hrs.

The Nominations Committee was convened by the General Secretary to a meeting on the same day, 11 December, and began its work immediately. Following the proposal of the General Secretary, Bishop John Neill was confirmed as Moderator of the Nominations Committee.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE MEETING

I. OPENING ACTIONS - 12 December

I. Call to Order

The 49th meeting of the Central Committee was called to order at 20.00 hrs on Saturday 12 December 1998, in the New Lecture Hall, University of Zimbabwe. In accordance with a proposal by the General Secretary, the Committee confirmed outgoing president Bishop Vinton Anderson as moderator for this session.

II. Agenda

The General Secretary indicated that the agenda for this meeting included the election of the officers of the Central and Executive Committees, and of the members of the Executive Committee; confirmation of the proposed membership of the Faith and Order Standing Commission, the WCC members of the Joint Working Group with the RCC, and the Core Board of the Ecumenical Institute, Bossey. These latter three groups had been proposed by the outgoing Executive Committee and reviewed by the Nominations Committee.

III. Minutes of previous meeting

As the minutes of the last meeting of the Central Committee held in Geneva, Switzerland, 11-19 September 1997, had not yet been circulated to all members of the new Central Committee, their approval was held over until the next meeting.

IV. Seating of Substitutes

The General Secretary explained that procedures for Central Committee allow for any member to appoint a substitute if he or she is unable to be present; a substitute must be a member of the same church and region as the member.

The seating of substitutes was agreed as follows:

Metr. Chrysostomos Macheriotis for Bishop Vasilios Karayannis,
Church of Cyprus

Rev. Mihail-Daniel Lungu for Bishop Nifon of Slobozia and Calarasi, Romanian Orthodox Church

Mr Gabriel Habib for Bishop George Zakhm, Greek Orthodox Patriarchate of Antioch and all the East

Metropolitan Bishoy for Bishop Youannes, Coptic Orthodox Church, Egypt.

REPORT OF NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE

The Moderator of the Nominations Committee, Bishop John Neill, presented the slate of nominations for the Executive Committee. He explained that the committee had limited itself to proposing 19 names, including the Officers, in keeping with the composition of the Executive Committee in the period until this assembly.

The previous decision of the Assembly to confirm the revised Rule VI,1. regarding the composition of the Executive Committee would make it possible to increase the membership by four persons. If the Central Committee were to make use of this possibility the Nominations Committee would propose the addition of Rev. Anders Gadegaard as a first priority. Other names which had been considered positively by the Nominations Committee included the Very Rev. Leonid Kishkovsky and Ms Idah Njobwu.

I. Election of Officers

The Moderator presented the following nominations for the Officers of the Central Committee:

Moderator: His Holiness ARAM I, Armenian Apostolic Church, Catholicossate of Cilicia, Lebanon

Vice-Moderators: Ms Justice Sophia O. A. ADINYIRA, Church of the Province of West Africa, Ghana

Dr Marion S. BEST, United Church of Canada, Canada.

In making these proposals, the Moderator said that there had been full agreement on the part of the Nominations Committee with regard to the importance of maintaining some continuity in appointing the Officers. Responding to a question as to whether there was any precedent for re-electing a Moderator, the General Secretary said that the Second Assembly in Evanston had elected Dr Fry as Chairman of Central Committee and he had been re-elected at New Delhi. There was nothing in the Rules to prevent a re-election. The term of office would be the same as that of Central Committee - until the next Assembly.

Bishop Neill, answering another question, said that during the discussions of the Nominations Committee no other candidate had been proposed as moderator. In view of the present difficulties in relation to membership of some Orthodox Churches in the WCC, and the important role His Holiness Aram I had played in negotiations thus far, the Committee had been unanimous in proposing the three names for moderator and two vice-moderators.

The Central Committee voted in favour (with one vote against and one abstention) of appointing the above as Officers of the Council for the period until the next Assembly:

II. Executive Committee

There followed some discussion as to the best procedure to adopt in electing the Executive Committee. Some felt that the list of 16 names should be appointed first and that subsequently the additional four persons be nominated; others preferred to complete the list first and to vote once on the full slate.

After a further round of questions for clarification, the Central Committee agreed to add the name of Rev. Anders Gadegaard, and to confirm the slate of 16 names as presented by the Nominations Committee. When the vote was called, the slate was confirmed by a large majority, with 5 votes against and 6 abstentions.

The Central Committee then agreed to elect Fr Leonid Kishkovsky as an additional member of the Executive Committee.

It was further agreed that the next addition should be made from among women members from Africa. A ballot vote was taken with Ms Louise Bakala-Koumouno and Ms Abigail Ogunsanya as candidates. Ms Abigail Ogunsanya was elected by 79 votes to 43, with 7 abstentions/invalid votes.

For the last additional place, it was agreed that a young ordained woman be named. Rev. Septemmy Lakawa, from Indonesia, was elected unanimously.

Membership of the Executive Committee was thus confirmed as follows:

Mr Akhura noted that for the first time a representative from an African Instituted Church had been appointed as a member of the Executive Committee. He expressed appreciation for this sign that the need for balances was being taken seriously.

OTHER NOMINATIONS

I. Faith and Order Standing Commission

Bishop Neill reported that members of the Nominations Committee had been aware that they did not have the time or experience to study in detail the proposals for membership of the Faith and Order Standing Commission. They had therefore decided to present the list as they had received it, noting that further consideration had been requested with regard to one name.

The General Secretary explained that the Faith and Order Commission was composed according to a very delicate process, and names could only be put forward from among those proposed by member churches for this Commission. The outgoing Board had thus been limited in its choice of names to those coming from the churches.

In examining the list proposed by the Board, the Executive Committee found that the representation of Orthodox Churches was below the required level, whereas there was an exceptionally high Lutheran representation. The Executive had therefore requested that an exchange be made drawing on the available names proposed by the churches. If the Central Committee did not wish to accept this alternative name, the matter would have to go back to Faith and Order; the new Standing Commission would have to seek another solution and bring a proposal back to Central Committee for consideration in August.

Dr Raiser further pointed out that Faith and Order also has a Plenary Commission of 120 members which normally meets once between assemblies. Proposals for membership of this larger body would come to Central Committee for approval at its meeting in August 1999.

A number of alternative names were suggested, and although they could not be acted upon, they were noted for referral to Faith and Order for possible membership of the Plenary Commission. These included Bishop Thomas Hoyt (Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, USA), and Dr Matthias Sens (EKD).

Concern was expressed about the limitations imposed on the nominations for this Commission, and it was requested that this be conveyed to Faith and Order.

The Central Committee voted, with 10 against and 5 abstentions, to approve the list of names as presented:

II. Joint Working Group between the WCC and the Roman Catholic Church

Bishop Neill said that the proposed membership from the WCC side had been received from the outgoing Executive Committee. Again, due to lack of time, it had not been possible to give detailed consideration to the names suggested.

The Central Committee voted, with 1 against and 5 abstentions, to approve the appointment of the WCC members of the Joint Working Group as follows:

The Nominations Committee recommended, and the Central Committee agreed, with one abstention, that the following be appointed as members of the Bossey Board:
